Description:

Montana is the 41st state to enter the United States and has a culturally-diverse population representing a broad spectrum of music genres, styles, and instrumentation. Montana is home to urban Indian populations, several Indian reservations, and traditionally to more than two dozen distinct tribes, each with their own forms of music including Blackfeet, Crow, Flathead, Cheyenne, Chippewa-Cree, Gros Ventre, Assiniboine, Sioux, and Little Shell.

As Montana's only nonprofit community music school, North Valley Music School founded this scholarship to encourage the pursuit of music education, provide philanthropic funding for American Indians and indigenous communities, and enable broader public awareness of the diverse musical contributions of Montana's American Indians to the culture of our state and region. We seek to honor and award such individuals as role models of citizenship, creativity, and entrepreneurship in the arts.
